A Message from Dianne

I would like to congratulate Meg on her new teaching position for 2014.

Meg has accepted a full time teaching position at St James' Parish Primary School in Ballarat. It is very exciting for Meg as this school offers a very strong commitment to a play based curriculum across the school.

I would personally like to thank meg for her professionalism, enthusiasm and dedication to Drummond Primary School over the past two years.

Megs departure will be a loss for Drummond and a gain for St. James.

Concert News

Our concert was a great success. A very positive experience for all involved.

Many thanks to all the children for their wonderful entertainment and to the staff and parents for all their support.

It really is a lovely community event and once again it was fabulous to see so many families, friends and relatives present.

A special thank you to Claire, jenny, bee, Ally, Tamara, Possum and Zoe for their extra support with setting up and cleaning up. The hall was ship shape by 10.00am this morning. A great team effort.

Family Service X'mas Gifts

Many thanks for the gold coin donations for a children's gift. We have raised $18.40.

Library

We would appreciate it if all families could please do a search for any outstanding library books that they may have forgotten about.

We would like all books to be returned by next week.

Transition Day Tuesday 10th December

Kyneton Secondary College – Yr 7 2014:

Students can travel on the school bus and travel as they will next year. The College provided bus stops and times to families in a mail out with other information a few months back. They can wear casual clothes, bring their snacks, lunch and drink – the canteen will be open. The booklist should be brought along to hand in unless parents are ordering online.

Daylesford Secondary College – Yr 7 2014:

This will be their normal 2014 Tuesday timetable. Neat casual wear and NO HOODED jackets/jumpers/tee shirts please. There will be a free sausage sizzle for the grade 6 students on Orientation Day.

Daylesford Primary School:

Rio and Buzz will be attending Daylesford Primary Schools orientation day on Tuesday 10th December for the whole day.

Drummond primary School:

All new students for 2014 shall be attending our transition morning from 9.00am – 1.30pm.
