SWISS-ITALIAN FESTA

It's almost Swiss & Italian Festa time and the children have been busy preparing! The theme is GOLD(ORO).

Please try and keep these dates free.

Students are making gold masks for the Grand Parade. This is on Saturday 2 Nov. We will meet at 10.00 – 10.15 at the Savoia Hotel Carpark in Hepburn Springs.

The Parade commences at 10.30. Please come along and support your school and community in this wonderful event. We need lots of families and students to carry banners and flags. Masks and costumes are encouraged.

Students are performing an "Italian Rap" show, so costumes to suit the Rap – HipHop Style would be great or Golden clothes.

All students have entered the Pinocchio drawing competition. Winners have been announced. See below

Grazie Mille for your support and we look forward to seeing you at these events
Signora Trudi

Lanterns have been made and decorated for the wonderful Lantern parade and fireworks on Sunday evening, 3 Nov. at 7.30. Meet in Tenth St, Hepburn, near the Red Star/Cosy corner café. Bring along your lanterns and extra matches!!

PRINCIPAL'S REPORT

Preparation for the Swiss Italian Festa this weekend has gone really well. Great lantern workshops, excellent mask making and many of our students were winners in the Pinocchio Competition. Well done to everyone involved. Hope to see you at the Parade on Saturday.

A few reminders:-

- next Tuesday is Melbourne Cup Holiday.
- we are still taking enrolments for 2014.
- Wednesday 20th November is a Pupil Free Day. All staff will be involved in Anaphylaxis training in the morning and then planning class structures for 2014 in the afternoon.
