Co-operation and Working with Others

Co-operation is when two or more people work together to achieve a common goal or outcome. Co-operation is important at our school because it helps makes people feel included and important.

“Nothing truly valuable can be achieved, except by the unselfish co-operation of many individuals.” Albert Einstein

School Concert

Wednesday 10 December @ Drummond Hall
It’s 13 days until our School Concert! How very exciting. We will be spending a lot of time practising in the lead up to it. The children can’t wait to showcase some of the things they have learnt this year in English and German!
