ANZAC DAY SERVICE

Robyn conducted a service with the students on Thursday 24th April, as a mark of respect for ANZAC Day. Students made wreaths and poppies, the school captains lowered the flag and read poems.
CURRENT FOCUS

Respect Self and Others
(Be Respectful)

Respect is when we recognise the worth, quality and importance of others. It is also important to have the same recognition of one’s self and have a self belief. Respecting self is an appreciation of and valuing yourself physically, socially, mentally and emotionally: knowing, understanding and valuing one’s strengths and traits.

There are many people who influence our opinions and the choices we make: friends, parents, family members, teachers, sporting coaches and other significant adults in our lives. We have conversations with them about many issues in life, we spend time/or associate with them and they are often people who are our role models.

At times we will agree with them or we may even disagree on some things but the way we do so is important in keeping the lines of communication open: respectful of self and others’ opinions. One way to show people that we hear what they are saying is to respond and say things like, “That is an interesting idea … but I believe we could approach it in this way” or “I think we are just going to have to agree to disagree on that point”. Even if we disagree we should make every effort to be a good listener and be prepared to justify our opinions. This is what we do as learners. We make room for new ideas by talking and listening to others with respect. That means no interruptions and using positive body language, nodding and smiling when we agree or looking puzzled/or shaking our head to indicate we disagree.

We all want people to respect us and our ideas. We certainly expect people to be respectful of the adults we trust: parents, other family members, teachers, sporting coaches, etc. Respect for self and others can be displayed when we talk, play, work and learn at school, within the community or at home.

Respecting others shows everyone that we are friendly, responsible and thoughtful students at Daylesford Primary.

TERM 2 STUDENT FUNDRAISER

Kate, Taria and Lily have been trying to raise money for the RSPCA because they like animals. Kate has made a donations tin, so if you would not mind, can you put money in it?

We are going to have a Dress-Up as your favourite animal day on Tuesday 20th May. Please bring a gold coin donation.

Welcome back to term 2. This term we have much to look forward to including; House Athletics, Cultural Day, and a visit from the Flying Doctors Service, School Photos, and a Major Games Day.

Finally, can I ask you as parents of this wonderful school to promote our Open Day for new and prospective parents of 2015 Preps. There will be a special flier in next week’s newsletter outlining the details. Perhaps you could pass this flier on to a Pre-School parent who is considering which school to enrol their child at in 2015.
