PRINCIPALS REPORT

Multicultural Day

What a wonderful opportunity to celebrate the diverse culture that exists in Australia today. Our guest speaker and ex-student, Sissy Austin, outlined beautifully the importance and generational element of Koorie culture as we stand on Dja Dja Wurrung land. We thank Sissy. It was a great honour to have such a proud Koorie woman as our guest speaker. I would also like to acknowledge how wonderful it was to have parents involved, proudly displaying cultural dress and in some cases teaching the children about their own experiences with culture!

Nicole, Suzanne, Katie and Trudi

Congratulations to all and well done, as we celebrate cultural diversity.

It was also fantastic to have our annexes', Drummond PS and Yandoit PS, in attendance on such an important occasion.

Debbie Rauber-Retirement

As the Head teacher at Yandoit PS since 1999 and as a teacher at Daylesford 10 years before that, we congratulate as a community Debbie's utter devotion to the children at Yandoit PS, one of our annexe schools. Well done Debbie and on behalf of all community members we wish you a wonderful and exciting retirement commencing during Term Two. Congratulations Debbie!

End of Term 1

Just a reminder that next Friday, the 31st of March, children will be dismissed at 2.30pm. Please be aware of this and have an extremely enjoyable break. Term Two commences on Tuesday the 18th of April.

Enjoy your weekend
Trevor Edwards
Principal.
